

Welsh Hills School Second Annual Dragon's Lair Fair

Saturday, April 26 ♦ 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.

About the event:

The Dragon Lair Fair is a community-based fundraising event where fun and family intersect with education!

Welsh Hills families and guests from the Licking County community will be treated to the traditional sights and sounds of a fair featuring a live petting zoo, food trucks, interactive games, lively music, carnival food, art experiences, an online silent auction, and activities for children of all ages!

Our inaugural event attracted over 300 people and we anticipate a larger crowd this year.

About Welsh Hills: Celebrating our 45th year, and founded in 1979, Welsh Hills School is a non-profit entity that stands proudly as the only ISACS (Independent Schools of the Central States) accredited independent school in Licking County. We educate children ages 18 months through grade twelve.

Through our curricula, our students experience education in an environment that encourages creativity and nurtures their natural love of learning.

Our school is located on an 11-acre campus with school gardens, a greenhouse, and outdoor learning opportunities. We supplement academics with additional offerings such as Spanish, music, visual arts, robotics, drama, coding, organic gardening, and an award-winning, global education program; these special programs expand and enrich our academic curriculum.

♦ As with so many independent schools, tuition generates less than 80% of what is needed for operating costs. Non-profit, independent schools depend on fundraising to bridge that gap.

♦ Monies raised support our students and faculty and allow us to continue to offer hands-on learning activities, outside-of-the-classroom experiences, professional development for our teachers, and financial aid.

We invite you to invest in our school by:

- ♦ Becoming a sponsor
- ♦ Donating monies, items, or services to our silent auction.

Questions concerning contributions will be gladly received at whsauction@welshhills.org. Please submit sponsorship requests by April 1.
